GOING TO BED HUNGRY.

All Wrong and Man is the Only Creature That Does It.

The complete emptiness of the stomach juring sleep adds greatly to the amount of emaciation, sleeplessness and general weakness so often met with. There is a perpetual change of tissues in the body, sleeping or waking, and the supply of nourishment ought to be somewhat continuous, and food taken just before retiring adds more tissue than is destroyed, and increased weight and vigor is the result. Dr. W. T. Cathell says: "All animals except man eat before sleep and there is no reason in Nature why man should form the exception to the rule." If people who are thin, nervous and sleepless would take a light lunch of bread and milk or catmeal and cream and at the same time take a sale, harmless stomach remedy like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in order to aid the stomach in digesting it, the result will be a surprising increase in weight, strength and general vigor. The only drawback has been that thin, nervous, dyspeptic people cannot digest and assimilate wholesome food at night or any other time. The complete emptiness of the stomach during

For such it is absolutely necessary to use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they will digest the food, no matter how weak the stomach may be, nourishing the body and resting the stomach at the same time.

Dr. Stevenson says: "I depend almost entirely upon Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in treating indigestion, because it is not a quack nostrum and I know just what they contain, a combination of vegetable essences, pure pepsin, and they cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles because they can't help but cure."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists everywhere at 30 cents per package. They are in lorenge form, pleasant to take, and contain nothing but pure pepsin, vegetable essences and bismuth, scientifically compounded. Your druggist will tell you they give universal satisfaction.

Now, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are vastly different in one important respect from ordinary proprietary medicines for the reason that they are not a secret patent medicine; no secret is made of their ingredients, but analysis shows them to contain the natural digestive forments, pure asseptic pepsin, the digestive acids, golden seal, bismuth, hydrastis and nux. They are not cathartic, neither do they act powerfully on any organ, but they cure indigestion on the commonsense plan of digesting the food eaten thoroughly before it has time to forment, sour and cause the mischief. This is the only secret of their success.

LOWDEN, WINS

Carries Twenty-One Townships, While the Governor Gets Only Four.

YATES'S FRIENDS CHAGRINED.

Illinois Executive Expected to Take the Delegation Into the Convention, but Chicago Proves Too Strong.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Chicago, Ill., Jan. 24.-Colonel Lewden defeated Governor Yates by a big majority at the Republican primaries in Ogle County yesterday. The result was known early this morning. Summarized, it shows: Townships carried for Lowden, 21, for Yates, 4; Lowden's total vote, 3,287; Yates, 1,548; Lowden delegates to the County Convention, 165; Yates's, 42. The Governor carried the townships on the vest side of the county. The only large towns carried by him were Polo and For-The vote in Polo, Buffalo Township, was: Yates, 361; Lowden, 185, Forreston, where the two State appointees live, gave Yates 213 and Lowden 87. Orenear which is the magnificent summer home of Colonel Lowden, gave Yates 33 and Lowden 621. Rochelle, captured a week ago by the cloquence of the Governor, was redeemed by Lowden's managers in the end, giving Colonel Low-den 440 and Governor Yates 30.

Other candidates for Governor received only a few votes in the county. Daniel Hogan gets the Ogle delegation for Secretary of State, and Frank L. Smith of Dwight for Lieutenant Governor, William Cisne of Wayne County is indignant be cause his name had not been placed on the ballot for Secretary of State. He de-carres that he made application in ample time. Cisne thinks a poor man stants no show in Northern Limeis, and he will seek some method of getting even down his way. Daniel Hogan, sometimes of Mound City, more frequently of Chicago, was pleased at having won first blood in his race.

YATES CHAGRINED.

The result in Ogle affects the candidates for Governor, according to the interests involved. Governor Yates's friends preinvolved. Governor Yates's friends pretend to be pleased. The truth is they are deply chagrined. They confidently counted on carrying the county and eliminating Lowden from the race. Everything pointed to a Yates victory on the day the Governor made his last speech in the county—Thursday. His whirlwind campaign on the stump, assisted only by the score of Southern Illinois politicians and appointees in its train, carried the slow-moving Ogle County tarmers off their feet. A fair sample of the organization the Lowden managers had is furnished by the fact that as late as Friday afternoon the managers of Lowden's campaign in Oregon did not know the townships that were holding primaries that afternoon, and not until Thursday did they know the identity of the disbursing agent of the Governor in Rochelle. Excepting one place, they did not know of the promises made by agents of the Governor of Jobs in return for townships. It was known that a man named Hefflebower, in Polo, was to get a place if Polo gave Yates a majority.

Under these circumstances the Lowden vote is a surprise. Under the able direction of Governor Yates's best captains a great deal of jealousy was excited against Lowden among the poorer class of farmers. In one township Lowden was accused of buying a team and wagon that had recently been stolen from a Woosung farmer. The fact that he maintained a coachman and footman and owned eleven driving rigs to his farm, besides a score or more hurners horse exclusively for drivtend to be pleased. The truth is they are

ing and riding, told heavily against him in many townships, MONEY SPENT,

IN OGLE COUNTY MONEY SPENT.

Considerable money was spent by both sides, but the Governor's party set the pace, being the first to begin offensive operations. Postmaster Discuss of Rochelle, who owns the party of Rochelle. who owns the party organ there, said he refused $1,000 for nis last issue, the proposition being made by an agent of Governosition being made by an agent or Yates.

"That is not true," remarked a friend of the Governor to The Republic correspondent. "Diccus was offered no such sum. He may have been offered all his paper was worth, however. One thousand doilars would have bought him."

The Ogle County battle must be regarded as a Lowden victory. It shows what he are the statement of the who know him best.

The Ogie County battle must be regarded as a Lowden victory. It shows what the people of Ogle, who know him best, think of him. He never made a trip west of Oregon until last week, it is said, and those who had met him were enthusiastic in his behalf. Surprised and routed by the ferce attack of the Governor, Lowden showed great political shrewdness and activity by the manner in which in three days he snatched victory from defeat. He added to his reputation of a "mixer" that of a resourceful manager.

After understanding the circumstances the rival candidates for Governor, including Governor Yates, will be disposed to have more respect for Mr. Lowden. He, too, has learned a lesson on the threshold of the big battle which will be invaluable during the next three months—to keep a watchful eye upon the organization in every county where he expects to make a fight. His friends declare he will not retailate on Governor Yates by contesting Morgan County. MARTYR YATES.

Governor Yates learned one valuable fact from the result, and that is that the peoole of Northern Illinois are not dispose o accept the estimate placed upon his capacity and ability by the Chicago newspapers. Many hard-headed Ogle Cosmity farmers think the Governor is a martyr and that he has been persecuted for doing his sworn duty, and that the Chicage papers hound him because he would not permit them to use him. This is the impression conveyed by the Governor in his speech, and it is generally believed. The natural instinct of man to be "for the under dog" in a fight is a great help to the Governor. The many sins of omission and commission of Governor Yates since his inauguration have not been laid before the voters of the State in plain words. If he is nominated the Democratic party will see that this is done. Leading Republicans of the State are quaking for fear he will win. In this connection they point to the fact that Democrats are throwing no bricks at him. capacity and ability by the Chicago news-

BATTLE FOR BLOOD. The most significant feature of the battle in Ogle, after all, was the personal animority displayed by the leaders of the wo factions. The fight ought to settle forever any possible suggestion of a Lowlen-Yates alliance. It was a battle for den-Yates alliance. It was a buttle for blood.

The Deneen faction in Chicago has virtually issued a challenge-to the Lowden faction. For a week a great Lowden meeting has been advertised to take place at the Auditorium to-morrow night. The Deneen managers for the last few days have been quietly arranging for a monster demonstration on the North Side for the same date. Everything is in readiness and to-morrow morning the announcement will be made. The intention is to make it appear as having been indifferently advertised. Both factions are straining every nerve to outdo the other. There is a large element of Republicans in Chicago, who do not want any Chicago candidate to be nominated for Governor, and it is surmised that they will endeavor to arouse so much personal feeling between Deneen and Lowden that the rural districts will refuse to support either one in the convention. This would be a repetition of the other the heghta to Springfield began tonight. The lovefeast does not start until Wednesday morning, but most of the candidates will be on the ground Monday and all will be there Tuesday. B. M. Chipperfield, candidate for Attorney General, is now there. Daniel Hogan left here this morning, Deneen and Lowden will depart for the scene Monday night or Tuesday morning.

MILITARY SCHOOLS

Academies From Maine to California Apply for Space on the Grounds and Dates.

BARRACKS NOT LARGE ENOUGH

Space Immediately South of the Liggett Building Has Been Graded for Cadets' Drill Yard.

Appreciating the value of the World's Fair as an educational factor, a large number of the military academies of the country have written to ask for dates when their organizations can be accommodated on the grounds. These requests come from Maine to California, from schools at one end of the Louisiana Purchase to the other, the one farthest south being the Louisiana State Military Academy, for whose visit the Louisiana State Legislature has appropriated $5,000 to defray traveling expenses and for rations during their two weeks stay at the Exposition.

The Highland Park Military Academy will make its visit during the first two weeks in July, and during the same period the First Regiment of Illinois National Guards will be quartered at the barracks. which will accommodate 2,000 men.

The ground immediately south of the Liggett building, near the Stadium, has been graded for drills and no guard duty will be required of the schoolboy soldiers, who will be under their instructors at the Fair and subject to the same discipline they would have during the regular term

A letter was received recently by E. C. Culp, secretary of the Committee on Cerenonies, from the principal of Highland Park Academy, giving its itinerary to the Exposition. The outing will be geographical in the first part of the trip, as the country between Chicago and St. Louis will be studied at first hand. The school will be studied at first hand. The school will make the trip by water, coming down the canal to the Illinois River and thence to the Mississippi. They will also study the industries of the cities, making stops at points of interest.

Three hundred cadets from a military academy at Phoenix. Ariz. who are heralded as a "fine, husky lot of young men," will be at the Exposition in May and will be followed by the Hill Military Institute of Portland, Ore., which will arrive the will be at the Exposition in May and will be followed by the Hill Milliary Institute of Portland, Ore., which will arrive the last week of May.

All the crack military organizations of the country have been invited to attend the Exposition, and among those that have been assigned dates are the C. ambus (O.) Rifies, the Allegheny Rifles of Philladelphia, the Bath company of the Maine National Guard, the Culver Milliary Academy of Culver, Pa.: St. John's Military Academy of Culver, Pa.: St. John's Military Academy of California.

Provisions are being arranged to accommodate the overflow from the barracks, as it is deemed impossible to arrange the dates so that only 2,000 citizen soldiery will be here at any one time.

No admission fee will be charged the visiting cadets. Mr. Culp says, nor will they need to bring bedding other than blankets, as a full equipment of cots and mattresses has been secured for the dornatories.

PASSENGER AGENTS PLEASED. ennsylvania Railroad Representatives Entertained at Exposition.

A party of about forty passenger agents of the Pennsylvania Railroad, of the lines west of Pittsburg, visited the World's Fair Grounds yesterday and were guests of the Exposition management at luncheon in the Administration building.

The trip through the grounds was made in an observation car over the Exposition tracks. To a man the railroad men spoke in terms of the highest praise of white they saw, and declared that it far exceeded the ideas they had formed of the Fair.

TO HOLD JOINT SESSION WITH CIVIC LEAGUE CLUBS

Kindred Associations Signify Inter tion of Having Representatives at World's Fair.

John A. Butler, chairman of the National Municipal League's Committee on Civic Week at the World's Fair, writes that several similar organizations, including the American Park and Outdoor Art Association, the American League for Civic Improvement and the American eague of Municipalities, will meet with the league in joint session. Mr. Butler

"The idea is to bunch all that is being done for civic development and progress and make it known conspicuously at the Exposition. The plan is for each organiza tion to delegate a man to read a definite paper setting forth the organization's aims and accomplished work and its relation to the whole movement for municipal betterment.

"There will also be another order of papers in which the civic problem will be discussed from various standpoints: political; religious, etc. These papers will be prepared by men of national reputation and are intended to draw general attention to the work being done for better civic conditions and the results already achieved.

Uniting so many organizations through their representatives, the programme would cover a week with a two or three hours' session every forenoon. The various bodies referred to (except the National Municipal League, which I immediately represent) propose to hold their annual meetings at St. Louis. This general meetings at St. Louis. This general meeting of delegated representatives from the various bodies is designed to immediately follow such annual meetings, and we have set the date tentatively as June 13 and the following week.

The fact that the Honorable James C. Carter of New York is our president emeritus and Charles Jerome Bonaparte our acting secretary will, I think, convince you that we shall be able to secure men of such ability and distinction among the speakers as to give the sessions not only great usefulness, but great general interest."

As al most every citzen of Montgomery Coun most every citzen of Montgomery County expects to visit the Exposition, the Leader proposes a big rounion.

Every one who was born in the county or lived there for any length of time may meet at the World's Fair on "Montgomery County Day," the Missouri State building being designated as the gathering place.
